My quest for civil services got a direction when I joined a foundation course headed by Sylesh Sir when I was in 11th standard. Later I joined the full time Prelims cum Mains batch at Fortune IAS Academy. Here I got the support from Nitin Sir, Anton Sir, Anand Sir, Nandagopan Sir, Achuth Sir and Imthiyaz Sir for the mentorship provided across prelims, mains and interview stages. Most importantly, the peer group I could gather at Fortune played a pivotal role in whatever I could achieve.

Early start translates to Top Success

Skills needed to clear the IAS examination?

Stage1: Prelims

Testing your Decision Making skills and General Awareness through Multiple Choice Questions

Stage2: Mains

Testing your Critical thinking, Writing skills, Time Management through descriptive papers

Stage3: Personality Test

Testing your Communication Skills, Leadership Qualities

How Fortune IAS Junior deliver these skills.

Kerala lags behind in the number of IAS Officers

Why does the most literate state lag behind?

- ➡ Lack of civil service orientation from a young age unlike many other northern states
- ➡ Due to lack of awareness there is a misconception that one needs to know everything under the sun to crack the exam
- ➡ Humanities subjects like History, Civics, Geography, Economics which form the core syllabus for competitive exams like IAS are often not given adequate focus
- ➡ Students are often encouraged to memorize subjects rather than being taught their real-world application
